I wish to thank everyone who has sent me info on my Mullinax family, which is from my father's line.

I started this back in 1969 and all my grand parents were gone but still had many other members of their family I could call on to get info. Otherwise I worked at the court house, library and cemeteries to find info that I could.

I with others spent many a week at the Ft. Wayne, IN library, Salt Lake City library, Madison, WI library and many hours at Columbia, MO library just about every year from when I started. There was 4 of us who went to Iowa City every month during the good weather but now one has moved, one has passed and the other can't get out any longer and no fun to go by your self. So decided it was time to stop.

This was before the internet so didn't have that to rely on but was just as well as have found a lot of wrong info on the internet. (I can't say mine is all right either) As much of it was not able to be proven for sure so just had to go by what we could find. But if anyone has proof of what you find is wrong in any of my books I would appreciate knowing it. We know every one is not 100% right as no one is perfect, even in research.

So hope these books will be appreciated and enjoyed as much as I had putting them together. But I think now is the time to turn them over to someone else to enjoy as I can't get to the libraries any longer and only the internet to rely on and that isn't as much fun as going to the places where your ancestor's walked themselves.

You will notice different address's but the one above is correct.

JAMES MULLENIX DEAD

James Mullenix, grandfather of C.W. and J.E. Mullenix of Unionville, died at his home in Graysville at an early hour this Wednesday morning, after a long sickness from cancer.

He was 89 yers of age last March and had been a resident of Putman county for 71 years. He was a native of Kentucky but in an early day moved to Indiana and from there to Macon county to Putnam where he homesteaded the land on which Graysville now stands, and where he has lived for nearly three-quarters of a century. He was twice married-- the first union being productive of eight children-- but three of whom are living, viz: William, Miles and James I. His second wife survives him.

The demise of Mr Mullenix, following so closely upon that of James L. Robbins is astern reminder of the fact that the pioneer settlers of this county are rapidly passing beyond-- sturdy, independent, fearless men they were, fit for the work they had chosen, that of making a new region habitable for themselves and those who should follow them.

Oct 6, 1909 Obituary of James Mullenix Unionville Republican

The cause of God and the family of Zion have lost their most humble and exemplary servant and brother of north Missouri, member of Mt. Hope church of Regular Predestinarian Baptist. He made a public profession of faith in Christ and was baptised and was one of the constitutional members of Mt. Hope in 1854 and as far as I know is the last one of either such constitutional memberships. In departure the family, the community, the state and the church have certainly lost a pattern of life which God alone can supply among us and we can see no purpose in God letting him decay and go down in his 89th and 90th year under a Roseblood corner only to complete the so nearly a perfect pattern of God like among us in such perfect submission to his Heavenly Father's will in such good health in early 89 years and then so aattiently submissive in his decline much like Jesus quietly say, "thy will be done." Oh, that God would be pleased to fill his place with one like him among us and fasten in all our hearts the need of a well ordered walk and Godly conversation is my prayer.

James Mullenix was born in Wain county, Ky. March 10, 1820. His parents moved to Putnam county, Ind., in 1827 and he come to Macon county, Mo. on a visit and to see the country in 1838 where Cupid claimed him and led him to marry Miss Mary Gilstrap in 1839, moving the same year to Putnam county, Mo., locating on and entered the fine tract of land where the village of

He married Miss R.S. He departed this life September 15, 1909, aged 89 years, 7 months and 5 days, leaving his second faithful wife, 3 noble sons, 25 grandchildren, 54 great grand children, 10 great great grandchildren, many friends and the church to mourn their loss, yet all of them who have Christ in them, the hope of glory, do not mourn as those who have no hope but can rejoice in the eternal hope of meeting again in everlasting peace.

Colored Steel, the New Heat Resisting Material.—Used in the fire back and short center. Withstands the intense heat necessary for heavy cooking and baking, four to five times longer than cast iron, malleable iron or any other material used in range construction. This is a patented heat resisting material, from which the air spaces and free carbon found in the ash pan are burned off, thus preventing too hot or too slow a fire at one point in the fire box and insures an evenly heated oven and cooking surface. It means no scorching or burning of hands and gives you additional means over other ranges of supplying fuel.

but the reasonable world accepted Dr. Cook as the real discoverer of the North Pole. In a few days thereafter Lieut. Peary, reached a point of communication with the world at large, and in the same breath that he announced his discovery of the pole ("my pole" as he put it) he attempted to discredit Dr. Cook's discovery. Everybody would have been glad to give Peary credit for accomplishing what he had so often attempted to do, and would have been willing to divide honors between him and Dr. Cook, but his uncalculated attacks upon Cook have been disgusting and nobody particularly cares whether Peary really visited the pole or not.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Creomulsion relieves bronchitis because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and break down heavy mucus and soothe inflamed bronchial passages. HUSBAND - Solomon Wilson MULLENIX-3538

Soloman listed as deceased in fathers obit of Dec 1922.

Rose cemetery records list Solomon and wife. Death date 21 Apr 1920, no age or birth date.

Solomon and Mary Ellen had 10 children and 3 had died before 1935.

1870 Putnam Co. MO Soloman age 1 with parents.

1880 Putnam Co. MO Soloman age 11 with parents.

1900 Putnam co. MO Elm twp sheet 16 #317/317: Soloman 31-Nov 1869 md 6 yrs, Mary E. 28-Aug 1871, 4 children 3 living, Dollie V. 4 dau, Nova L. 3 son, N?owit? (Norvil M.) dau 7/12 MO.

1910-20 not checked census but soundex cards had no listing for this family.

There was an obituary for one Soloman Mullenix from Putnam Co. Journal, Unionville MO Fri 2 Apr 1920: Graysville: Sol Mullenix formerly of this place living in Newton, Iowa is very sick and not expected to live.

Fri 9 Apr 1920 - Graysville: Sol Mullenix died Monday 5 April at Newton, Iowa. Brought home Tuesday 6 Apr to be buried in the Rose cemetery Wednesday 7 Apr. He leaves a wife and several children, father and mother and number of relatives and friends.

(Researched Columbia, MO May 1987)

If this is this Solomon, then other death date would be wrong. Need to check 1910 and 1920 Iowa census. Wife of this Solomon said he died 16 years before which would be abt 1919 from 1935. This wife being Mary Ellen West Mullenix. They had 10 children. The cemetery records listed 21 Apr 1920 and I checked the Unionville paper 28 Apr thru 19 May and did not locate an obituary for this Solomon. (Could date be wrong and was 5 April in IA?) This was the only Solomon listed in cemetery records with wife Mary E. West Mullenix.

Was this a son of this Solomon? The Unionville Republican, Unionville, MO 31 Aug 1898: Distressing Accident near Graysville, Monday forenoon. The 5 year of son of Mr and Mrs Sol Mullenix was left along in a wagon to which a team was hitched. The team ran away and the little fellow was thrown out, falling under the wheel. He died about 7 that evening. Funeral took place yesterday. (b. 1893) They had a son Nova L. b. 1893 but he was living in census record of 1900 so not sure (there was another Soloman Mullenix in area).

The obituary of Soloman's daughter Anna Fay Rowland listed she was preceded in death by 3 brothers: Nova, John and George Will Mullenix (which we know) and 4 sisters: Dolly Vincent, Lona Mullenix, Rita Bruno and Armeta Hunter (of these only one known for sure is Dolly)

Burial in Rose cemetery. (Researched Columbia, MO libr 3 May 1999). There is confusion as to her husband as cemetery record said d. 21 Apr 1920 but there was an obit 9 Apr saying Sol Mullenix died 5 Apr 1920 in Newton, IA where he was living. It is possible there were two Solomons that died close in time but only one was buried in the Rose cem, next to Mary E. West Mullenix and his death date was 21 Apr. on the stone. 1900 Putnam Co. FORREST SMITH

Forrest Smith, son of Zora and Iva Smith, was born in the Hartford community, Putnam County, Missouri, on the 23rd day of December, 1899 and departed this life on the 24th day of January, 1961, at the age of 61 years, one month and one day.

The deceased was preceded in death by his father; a brother, Charles E., and infant son. Of his immediate family, left to mourn his death, are his mother, two brothers, Jack and Noel Smith of Hartford, Missouri, and a sister, Mrs. Ola Roberts of Kansas City, Missouri, and three daughters, as follows: Mrs. Maxine Noel, Unionville; Mrs. Patsy Garlock of Hawthorne, California and Mrs. Pauline Pasa of Centerville, Iowa. In addition are ten grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of friends.

Mr. Smith moved to Unionville about 1931 to accept employment as Deputy Circuit Clerk and Recorder. He served in this position for a little less than four years, when he resigned to run for the office in 1934. Elected that year, he took office in January, 1935 and was twice reelected for a total of twelve years. After leaving office in January, 1947, he engaged in farming and other activities for a few years.

Later he found that he had a facial condition which proved to be malignant and for a time made regular trips to the Ellis-Fischel hospital at Columbia for treatment and extensive surgery. The hospital authorities found that he could do part-time work and when his condition appeared to be cured, he was given a responsible full-time position where he had rendered valuable service for some seven years. His death was the result of a heart attack.

It has been said that "the most precious thing anyone—man or store, anybody or anything—can have, is good-will of others. It is something as fragile as an orchid. And as beautiful! As powerful as a great turbine and as hard to build. As wonderful as youth and as hard to keep."

The deceased, though not wealthy in material sense, was wealthy in the friendships he made, in the good-will he won and retained of others. His was a wholesome demeanor and he was not addicted to petty fault-finding. He was a man of strong opinion and positive expression, but he would listen to reason and would ever accord to others the right to believe as their consciences dictated. He believed in happiness and that a laugh was better than a sigh; but he could be serious and he was adamant in challenging that which he believed to be an injustice.

Forrest had long been a member of the Masonic order at Hartford and a faithful adherent to its tenets.

An outstanding public official, he was honest, diligent and efficient. He did every job assigned him in a creditable manner and was never one to shirk from duty or shrink from responsibility. His passing creates a void in the circle of friendship, but his deeds will long be remembered. Funeral services

Because of the circumstances of the death Coroner Dr. Hanson was called. He made an examination and decided that the cause of death was apparent enough and that no inquest was necessary.

Mr. Mullenix had gone to bed the evening before apparently feeling as well as usual, but he failed to respond when called the following morning and inquiry revealed he was dead.

some of their experience and observations growing out of their stay in Germany.

Mrs. Freeman is the former Miss Helen Dodson, who resided here and was the Clerk of the local Selective Service Board during World War II until she was transferred to St. Louis, where she met her future husband, Sgt. Freeman served for two years overseas in the armed forces during the war, and then followed with two three hitches in Germany in the Army of Occupation. Mrs. Freeman joined her husband in Germany, and lived there for over two years before they returned home. He expects to be reassigned to duty in this State.

Mr. Oren Lee Halley introduced Mrs. Freeman first, and she gave a general description of where they were stationed, saying they were quartered for about two years in Augsburg in Bavaria, and then spent the remainder of the time near the Swiss border. She said the quarters for the occupation forces are furnished by the Army, and a maid was assigned to her home. They could buy what they needed in American commissaries, but these frequently were short of what she wanted. They could also shop in the German stores, and these stores seemed now to have plenty of most things. On the whole, she thinks the Germans are pretty well fixed economically and are not too badly off, though for some time after the war's end they were in dire straits. The people in Bavaria are typically old world folks with large brimmed hats and they smoke long stemmed pipes. Farming operations are still carried on with ox and horse teams, though she understands some mechanization has been done in the north part of Germany. Clothing worn is typical of the region where they live, and is traditional, making it very interesting.

Mrs. Freeman at first felt very sorry for the people, but as time went on she lost that feeling to a considerable extent. This perhaps was because she felt that basically these people resented the occupation, though they were always courteous. She could understand

Commended For Service

Ryals Motor Co. Awarded Certificate For Participation In Driver Education

Mr. John T. Ryals received a Certificate of Commendation today from the Automobile Club of Missouri for the Ryals Ford Company's civic contribution in loaning a dual control car to be used in the Unionville and Livonia High School Driver Education courses.

Mr. Louis G. Renfrow, Auto Club district manager, who made the presentation of the certificate to Mr. Ryals, stated that "Experience records show that drivers who have passed the high school course in driver education have 76.8 per cent fewer accidents and 69.1 per cent fewer arrests than drivers who did not receive driver education in high school."

The certificate was signed by county. Little has been done to stimulate interest in it for several years and it is felt by the management that the benefits of this ought to appeal to a great many people for a low cost insurance who are not now familiar with it. This meeting is intended to revive interest, and it is hoped that every member, and other person interested may attend. A. S. Montgomery is President, but there are several vacancies on the Board, and one purpose of this meeting is to fill the vacancies on the Board, and probably to elect officers.

Dies By His Own Hand

Body Of Nelson Mullenix Found In His Home Where He Lived Alone

The body of Mr. William Nelson Mullenix was found by his brother in law, Cy Gilstrap, in the one room home of Mr. Mullenix last Wednesday afternoon shortly after two o'clock. The body was on the floor, and the top of his head had been blown off with a 12 gauge shotgun which lay nearby.

Mullenix had been working in Ottumwa, Iowa, but had returned to his home about a mile north of Graysville, and had been there for a few days. He had eaten the noon-day meal at the home of his sister, Mrs. Cy Gilstrap, and then had gone to his own home. Mr. Gilstrap went over, and found the door locked. He peered into a window and saw the body lying on the floor, and then went for assistance. Coroner Chas. Fowler was called; and he went to the scene and from the circumstances, and evidence made a report to the effect that the deceased had come to his own death by his own hand. Coroner Fowler said the circumstances indicated that the deceased had used a small iron rod, which had been run through the trigger guard and laid back against the trigger. He apparently then placed the muzzle of the gun in his mouth, and pushed the rod with his foot against the trigger. A loaded revolver was also lying on the bed, but the body was lying on the floor.

The deceased is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mullenix. He was never married, and is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Cy Gilstrap and Mrs. Blanche Capps.

The deceased was born November 15, 1901, and died June 13, 1951. The body was brought to the Husted Funeral Home where it was prepared for burial, and then taken to Graysville Baptist church for the funeral, held at two o'clock Friday afternoon and conducted by Rev. J. H. Houston, pastor the Baptist church at Unionville. Interment was in the Johnson cemetery near there.

Items of Apparel Held

Ceiling Prices Fixed On All Types Of Wearing Apparel In Effort To Hold Line

Kansas City, Mo. - Virtually all types of adults' and children's wearing apparel have been placed under ceiling prices in a new governmental manufacturers' regulation which is expected to roll back some retail prices that are out of adjustment, Kenneth Kart, regional price executive, announced at the Office of Price Stabilization.

Most all garments, as well as bathing suits, handbags, neckwear, scarves, earmuffs, garters, hat bodies and other items important in the family budget will be governed, effective August 15, the official said. The "tailored" control order, designated as CPR-45, is similar to the manufacturers' regulation, CPR, 22.

Briefly, the government establishes four base periods of any three consecutive months between July 1, 1949 and June 24, 1950. Added to prices prevailing in the base period chosen will be additional material and labor costs up to June 4, 1951. An initial report, showing base periods, description of business and categories of articles manufactured will be the only report required.

Besides rolling back any cost margins that may have been widened since the Korean war began, Kart declared the order would restore normal cost-price relationships and that it would grant producers needed relief from the general freeze order of last January.

This is another step in the government's campaign to hold the value of the dollar against further inflationary trends, the OPS said.

56TH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mullenix
 Have All the Children Present

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mullenix observed their 56th wedding anniversary at their home in the east part of Unionville on Friday with a family dinner attended by all their children and some grandchildren, although the actual anniversary was on Saturday. Their own children were all present, and these include Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Mullenix of Worthington; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mullenix, Unionville; Mr. and Mrs. Gail Mullenix and children, Unionville; Mrs. John Beck, Unionville; and Mr. and Mrs. John Carter, Unionville.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mullenix are able to be up and about, although neither is strong. Mr. Mullenix was taken to Kirksville on the following day for a checkup, and is reported to be in fairly good condition, though not able to do any work. Both have lived in Putnam county during their lives thus far, and have been among the county's finest citizens. Their gentle but sturdy honesty and many other fine qualities have created an influence for good that will long outlast them. They have many friends whose wish for them is many more happy anniversaries of their wedding, which occurred on July 14, 1895, following their attendance at the morning church service at Graysville. From the church they went to the home of the pastor, Rev. A. W. Geislin and were married. They began housekeeping on a farm near Graysville, and later moved to a farm near Unionville, where they resided until about seven years ago, when they moved to Unionville.

the bride, who sang "Through the Years", "You Are My Love" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, who was given a marriage by her father, wore a dress of white nylon marquisette with a cathedral train. Chantilly lace outlined the round yoke at the neck, the bottom of the bodice and cascaded to the hem in front. Her fingertip veil fell from a bandeau of illusion netting decorated with four pearls and pearlized orange blossoms on either side.

She carried a white Bible top

HUSBAND Verne M. DAVIS-4122

NOTES:

He was listed as md to Nellie Mullenix Abbott as 2nd husband in 1969 and he died 1975. There was a probate record which listed his death date.

Apparently there was an obituary in the Sunday 28 Sep 1975 paper but that one wasn't filmed for some reason, went from Sat to Monday paper but just happen to have a small notice of his death in the Monday Quad City Times 29 Sep: "Verne Davis --- Services for Verne M. Davis, 69, of 1650 W. Garfield St., Davenport, were today at Runge Chapel. Burial is in Oakridge Cemetery, West Liberty, Iowa. --- Mr Davis died Saturday at University Hospitals, Iowa City, after an extended illness. --- An additional survivor to those listed in Sunday's editions of the Quad-City Times is a son, Floyd Abbott."

(Researched Davenport, IA library 20 May 1990). (Floyd was a step son)

Hadn't checked city directories for Verne Davis to date.

Indictment Is Dismissed

A second indictment charg-ing Cecil Bates, 18, with un-lawful use of weapons was quashed Thursday by Rock Is-land Circuit Court Judge George O. Hebel who then or-dered the youth to stand trial on one count of an earlier in-dictment.

Bates, 603 11th Ave., Rock Island, was originally indicted for unlawful use of weapons and possession of explosives or incendiary devices (a Molot-ov cocktail) in connection with an April 10 civil distur-bance in Rock Island.

That indictment was dis-missed after Public Defender Joseph Carpentier contended that gasoline as worded in the indictment, in itself is not an explosive.

Bates was re-indicted on the unlawful use of weapons count by the last grand jury.

"My client's constitutional rights have been violated by this action," Carpentier charged.

He added that he was pre-pared to go to trial on one count in the original in-dictment and "nothing more."

Assistant State's Atty. John Donald O'Shea had sought to have the re-indictment and a second count of a previous in-dictment tried in unison.

Hebel's decision to deny O'Shea's motion quashed the new indictment.

Bates was released on bond pending his trial.

OLIVER PERRY MAGEE

Oliver Perry Magee, son of Samuel Mandeville and Harriet Carr Magee, was born June 7, 1873 at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. He attended various rural schools taught by his father in or adjacent to Putnam county until he began teaching himself at the age of 17.

In the course of forty odd years as a teacher he taught the Carr, Petty, Lucerne, Mo., and Brazil and Promise City, Iowa schools before becoming unit manager of the C. Durant Jones Chautauqua. Following that he taught at Lowry, South Dakota, Ledyard, Baldwin Gillett Grove, Plainfield and Jerome and Miller-ton, Iowa. He returned to Putnam county about 1926, and taught in rural schools before he retired in 1932, and made his home in or near Unionville since that time.

His creed was a simple one. He believed the United States to be the greatest country on earth, that school teaching is the most important work, and that money, while a nice thing to have, should never be considered worth the price of polishing an apple or bending a hypocritical knee to anyone. He never assumed that he knew the answers to infinity, and was humble enough to admit it, though presenting his own views, which he respected.

Mr. Magee was married twice. By his first wife, Sarah Belle Mullenix of Hartford, he had seven sons and two daughters. Surviving, besides his first wife, are the following sons: James S. and Orris W. of Belle Fourche, home in Chapel with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown. She also leaves two aunts, three uncles, a number of nieces and nephews. And a host of friends. One brother, Floyd, preceded her death April 3, 1907.

On Nov. 24, 1930, she accepted Christ as her personal Saviour in a meeting held in Chapel church conducted by Revs. Burgher and Elmer Bankson and was a genuine and faithful Christian until the time of her death.

Vada was a kind mother, faithful companion and whose patience in suffering, endurance under trial and judgment for things deeply spiritual, seldom equalized. She, seemingly, lived the last few years in prayer and faith in her God. The last few hours of her life were spent in earnest prayer and she apparently, was reconciled to her going. She will be greatly missed in her home, in her community, and in her church.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Dec. 22 in Chapel church conducted by Miss Mary Burgher of Coatsville, assisted by Rev. Bertha Porter of Livonia. Interment was in the Chapel cemetery. The six brothers were pallbearers.

WIFE - Sarah Beard

Info from Johnson-Mullenix cemetery records, listed with husband. Also stated she md 2nd to John Croft, would be after 1883.

Her obituary had some differences in it that I don't think was right. From the Putnam Co. Journal Fri 26 Jul p? c2: " Croft--- Sarah Croft was born in Appanoose Co. IA in 1850. She was married there to George L. Mullenix in 1869 and they moved to Martinstown. To this union were born five children; three of whom are living: J.E. Mullenix of Unionville, Joseph of Martinstown and Mrs Hugh Martin of Martinstown. Her husband died in 1883 and about three years later she married John Croft who also died a few years ago. One child was born to this union, Herbert Croft of Graysville. --- She was a member of the Church of Christ. --- Mrs Croft died Sat 14 Jul after a few minutes illness with an acute case of indigestion. She stayed most of the time with her son Hugh.--- Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3 pm by Elder Parker of Memphis. All of her children were present. She was buried in the Johnson cemetery."

(Cemetery stone says died 20 Jul and son in law was Hugh Martin- she had no son Hugh).

Find A Grave internet site listed Sarah Beard Croft born 22 May 1843 (not 1850?) Unless this site was wrong. Parents wer Jesse Beard 1820-1848 and Nancy Ann Coffee Scobee 1820-1886. Info from Johnson-Mullenix cemetery records, listed with husband. Also stated she md 2nd to John Croft, would be after 1883.

Her obituary had some differences in it that I don't think was right. From the Putnam Co. Journal Fri 26 Jul p? c2: "Croft--- Sarah Croft was born in Appanoose Co. IA in 1850. She was married there to George L. Mullenix in 1869 and they moved to Martinstown. To this union were born five children; three of whom are living: J.E. One child was born to this union, Herbert Croft of Graysville. --- She was a member of the Church of Christ. --- Mrs Croft died Sat 14 Jul after a few minutes illness with an acute case of indigestion. The story of the shooting was two dead and another may die as result of a shooting last Thursday night at the home of Mabel Mills, Said to have been a Liquor Resort.

Murl Mullenix died instantly and Charles mills died a few hours later and the divorced wife of Mills, Mabel is lingering between life and death in a Kirksville hospital as the terrible consequences of a gun play by Mr Mills, who is believed by many to have been under the influence of either liquor or drugs at the time.

The story pieced together from different ones who knew some of the facts seems to begin some time ago. Mills and his wife were having trouble which led to divorce which was obtained last Feb. They are genearely regared as having carried on bootlegging operations together but after the divorce Mrs Mills rented a home just east of the Henry Gardner home and is said to have operated a speakeasy since that time. With her lived Ab Bonebright, who had made his home with both when they were together. On Thursday night Mills came up town with the idea of attending the political speaking but was unable to get in and went to the pool hall where he was seen by several and where he appeard to be in rather a jovial mood. Opinion differs to if he was intoxicated. Shortly before ten he left and believed went home and obtained his gun, a .38 colts special then to home of Mrs Mills. He told Ab Bonebright to let him in or he would shoot him and after being let in still said he would kill him. He walked into the sitting room and lined Mrs Mills and Bonebright up against the east wall. He faced them while Murl Mullenix sat in a chair south and to his right. In the argument that ensued Mullenix arose from his chair and pleaded with Mills not to start anything. Mills told him to sit down which he was doing when Mills shot him in the back and severed his spinal cord and was probably killed instantly. He turned and again threatened Bonebright then Mrs Mills said something and he turned and shot her in the abdomen and others fled then apparently Mr Mills turned the gun to his head and killed himself. Coroner questioned the others that were there and all told same story.

Robertson and Osem Kingston, who had soon and talked with Mills in the pool hall, decided to go to the home of Mrs. Mills to get a drink before going home. When they appeared at the front door, Mills appeared from somewhere and, standing there out of the way, saying "Let a man get in." He rapped with his gun on the door, and the wall was answered by Ab Bonebright. Mills pointed the gun at him and demanded to be let in or else he shot. The door was opened, and Mills continued to threaten Bonebright, saying that he would kill him. He walked into the sitting room, and lined Mrs. Mills and Bonebright up against the east wall. He faced them while Muri Mullenix sat in a chair south and to his right. In the argument that ensued, Mullenix is said to have arisen from his chair and to have pleaded with Mills not to start anything. Mills commanded him to sit down, or he would kill him. Mullenix started to sit down, and half turned from Mills to do so when Mills fired at him. The ball entered high on his back, severed the spinal cord, passed through the body, and lodged in a sort of kitchen cabinet against the south wall. Mullenix dropped into the chair without a sound, and is thought to have died instantly.

Mills then turned his attention to Mrs. Mills and Bonebright, and continued to threaten Bonebright. Mrs. Mills said something, and without warning Mills moved the gun from Bonebright and shot her in the abdomen. At this juncture Robertson and Kingston, and others, seem to have fled. Junior Martin, who had been sitting concealed door to the basement, but it was locked by a thumb latch beneath, and he had been unable to open the door, Bonebright fled at this time to this same door, unlatched it, and both ran through the basement to the outside. Bonebright believed that Mills snatched the revolver at him as he fled, but later evidence indicates that Mills only played with the hammer with his thumb, and did not attempt to shoot at him. A third shot was heard, and then a fourth. Martin got into a car belonging to Mullenix and hurried away in quest of officers and a doctor. Bonebright made his way around to the east window, and saw Mullenix dead in his chair, and Mr. and Mrs. Mills on the floor. He went around the front, and entered quietly, saying that he feared Mills was only faking in order to shoot him. He soon discovered, however, that Mills had fired a shot into his own head just above his right temple, and he picked Mrs. Mills up and carried her to a bed.

Later it was discovered that the tips of the fingers on a hand of Mrs. Mills had been seared by a bullet, and a bullet hole was found in the floor. The explanation of that seems to be that Mills fired one shot at the prostrate form of Mrs. Mills, and then turned the fourth shot into his own brain. The bullet which entered the abdomen of Mrs. Mills passed through her body into a china closet.

Officers and neighbors soon began arriving, and a physician was found and taken to the scene of carnage. Mullenix was dead, but Mills and his former wife were still alive. Mills died about two o'clock the following morning after being taken to his home, where he lived alone. Mrs. Mills was given emergency treatment and hurried to a hospital in Kirksville in an ambulance. She is not thought to have much chance for recovery. The gun had four empty shells, and seven live cartridges were found in the pockets of Mr. Mills besides those undischarged in the gun.

rehearsed that of Kingston, although he said he did not believe at first that Mills intended to really shoot anybody. He saw him about Mullenix, and he thought Mullenix had taken two or three steps toward Mills, but he stepped back to his chair after Mills had ordered him to go. Mills turned his attention to Bonebright, he said, and Mrs. Mills said something, whereupon he shot her. At this juncture he left. He heard two shots after that. He said he saw Mills earlier at the pool hall, had talked with him, and didn't notice that he was intoxicated. He didn't see Mrs. Mills fall.

Sheriff Hamlett was called to the stand, and he produced the gun with which the killing was done, explaining how it came into his possession. In the presence of the jury he broke the gun, took out four empty and two loaded shells, and explained that what was thought to be a snapping of the gun was merely a clicking of the hammer with a slight pressure of the thumb. He related that on one former occasion Mills came to his office and asked if he was wanted. This was immediately after the occasion on which he had fired at Bonebright a few months ago. The sheriff said he had had no report of the trouble, and so far as he knew he did not want Mills. Mills remained to wait for a short while, he said, and as he left turned to remark that he supposed the Sheriff would not care if he and the others mixed up with him were to all kill each other.

After hearing the testimony of these witnesses the Coroner's Jury returned a verdict to the effect that Mullenix came to his death by a gun shot fired by Charles Mills, and that Mills had come to his death by a gun shot fired by his own hand.

It seems an odd thing that although Ab Bonebright seems to be the one toward whom Mills directed most of his threats, Mills did not actually fire a shot at him, but dealt death and injury to nearly everyone else who remained in the death chamber. After shooting Mrs. Mills, Bonebright seems to have made a dash to the door leading to the basement, and had to cross in the open a distance of several feet. It was during this rush that Bonebright thought Mills snatched the gun at him, but now it seems that Mills only played with the hammer of the gun, and did not pull the trigger. Perhaps no one will ever know why. Some believe that he never intended to shoot Bonebright, but he did so thoroughly frighten

Mr. ... has been said about how it is that such a place has been allowed to operate, and the answer to that is more or less a reflection upon the community as a whole. It is inevitable that such places finally end in tragedy, although they may seem to run smoothly for a time. Sheriff Hamlett stated that he has raided the place, often upon information of the most flimsy character, and always has met difficulty in finding testimony that was willing to appear in court. He said that the liquor was always kept in a straight sided container in the sink, only a small quantity at a time, and upon the first appearance of officers this liquor was poured down the sink, and all evidence destroyed before his men could get to it. He and his men knew what had happened, but they were without evidence that would stand up in court. This comes back to the question of public support for our officers. If the public, which includes all of us, insists that such places shall not exist in our community, and is willing to stand up and be counted on the question such places could not last twenty-four hours. There are too many inclined to silently or openly approve of such places, and for that reason they get by. This terrible lesson may be profitable to our community, for we have exactly what the community permits, and if this arouses our community the end of such places may at last be in sight.

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY

Two Dead And Another May Die As A Result Of A Shooting Last Thursday Night At The Home Of Mabel Mills, Said To Have Been A Liquor Resort

Two lives were snuffed out almost instantly, and one more is hanging in the balance as a result of a fearful tragedy at the home of Mabel Mills on Thursday night of last week. Muri Mullenix died instantly, and Charles Mills died a few hours later, and the divorced wife of Mills, Mabel, is lingering between life and death in a Kirksville hospital as the terrible consequences of a gun play by Mr. Mills, who is believed by many to have been under the influence of either liquor or drugs at the time.

The story of the shooting as pieced together from different ones who know some of the facts seems to begin some time ago. Mills and his wife were not able to get along, and their troubles finally led to the divorce court, where Mr. Mills obtained a divorce last February. They are generally regarded as having carried on bootlegging operations together, but after the divorce Mrs. Mills rented a home just east of the Henry Gardner home, and is said to have operated a speakeasy since that time. With her lived Ab Bonebright, who had made his home with both when they lived together. According to some, there had been some visiting back and forth since the divorce, but once or twice anger flared, and once there was some shooting, but seemingly without intention to strike anyone. It is generally thought that Mills still thought a lot of his former wife, and possibly was intensely jealous of her.

On Thursday night Mills came up town with the idea of attending the political speaking, but was unable to get in, and went to the pool hall, where he was seen by several, and where he appeared to be in rather a jovial mood. Opinion seems to differ among those who saw him there as to whether or not he was intoxicated. Some think he was, while others say they noticed nothing wrong with him. Shortly before ten o'clock he seems to have left, and it is believed that he went directly home and obtained his gun—a .38 Colts Special—and then went directly to the home of Mrs. Mills.

According to the testimony given before the Coroner's Jury impaneled Friday by Coroner Quail, Carley Robertson and Ozem Kingston, who had seen and talked with Mills in the pool hall, decided to go to the home of Mrs. Mills to get a drink before going home. When they appeared at the front door, Mills appeared from somewhere and shouldered them out of the way, saying "Let a man get in." He rapped with his gun on the door, and the call was answered by Ab Bonebright. Mills pointed the gun at him and demanded to be let in or else he shot. The door was opened, and Mills continued to threaten Bonebright, saying that he would kill him. He walked into the Coroner Frank Quail called a jury composed of the following men: L. K. Underwood, Henry C. Gardner, Jay Curry, Ed Gaffey, Levi Cook and Eldon Robbins. The inquest was held Friday afternoon in the Circuit Court room. As Bonebright was the first one called, he testified that among those present at the time of the shooting, aside from the principals, were Muri Mullenix, Junior Martin and a Mr. and Mrs. Clint Harrison of Newtown, who were visiting at the home, and were in bed. Mrs. Harrison is an invalid. He also named C. H. Robertson and Ozem Kingston as being at the door when he opened it to allow Mr. Mills to enter. He said Mills had threatened him before, and had shot at him once. He could recall only hearing three shots, but said that there must have been four.

Junior Martin was called to the stand. He said that when he started home about nine o'clock he passed the McKay Motor Co. and saw Muri Mullenix there. He went in, and after talking a bit Mullenix suggested that they go and get a drink before going home. They then went to the home of Mrs. Mills and were drinking when Mills entered, although Junior said he had not paid for any of the drinks. He thought Mills snatched the gun once at Mrs. Mills when she seemed to step between Mills and Bonebright while they were lined up. He saw Mills point the gun at Mullenix and fire, but was too frightened to recall all that happened. They drank spiked beer, and had been there nearly an hour before the arrival of Mills. The shooting seems to have been shortly after ten o'clock.

Ozem Kingston was then called to the stand. He said he and Robertson were at the door when Mills appeared, and that he was pushed away by Mills, who began to demand admittance. When Bonebright appeared he threatened Bonebright, and entered. He said that he and Robertson followed in the hope that they might have a chance to disarm Mills. He saw him fire at Mullenix, but thought he had missed. He didn't hear the gun snap, but saw him point it at Mabel, and then he left. The second shot was fired while he was on his way out, and the third was fired while he was on the front porch. The fourth was fired when he had reached the barn belonging to Henry Gardner. He thought that Mills was intoxicated.

Carley Robertson said he was to take Kingston home, but it was suggested that they get a drink first, so they went to the home of Mrs. Mills. His story substantially corroborated that of Kingston, although he said he did not believe at first that Mills intended to really shoot anybody. He saw him shoot Mullenix, and he thought Mullenix had taken two or three steps toward Mills, but he stepped back to his chair after Mills had ordered him to go. Mills turned his attention to Bonebright, he said, and Mrs. Mills said something, whereupon Mills shot her. At this juncture he left. He heard two shots after that. He said he saw Mills earlier at the pool hall, had talked with him, and didn't notice that he was intoxicated. He Article under the picture listed Casey Martin killed with tractor overturned, the entire area was shocked early Friday evening around 8pm when it was learned that Neal (Casey) Maritn, 73 prominent Putham Co resident and former, banker, businessman and farmer had been killed in a tractor accident on hsi farm near Hartford. The accident occurred in his field about 1/4 mile west of the Darl Casady Store on the north side of the road. Mr and Mrs Martin had gone to a branch to ge a pickup load of sand and when the pickup became stuck, Casey went for a tractor. Apparently what happened was he tried to shift the tractor to a lower gear before going down the hill and missed, letting it run free. He used the frond end loader for a brake and it finally dug into the same soft earth throwing it end over end and he was pinned beneath.

Missouri voters or reject three constitutional amendments August 4 primary election. Secretary of State Kirkpatrick pointed out. The constitutional amendments technically a special held concurrently with primaries.

The three proposed amendments:

No. 1 -- Removal of the ban on state treasurer succeeding himself. This is now the only state official who cannot be elected to a second succession.

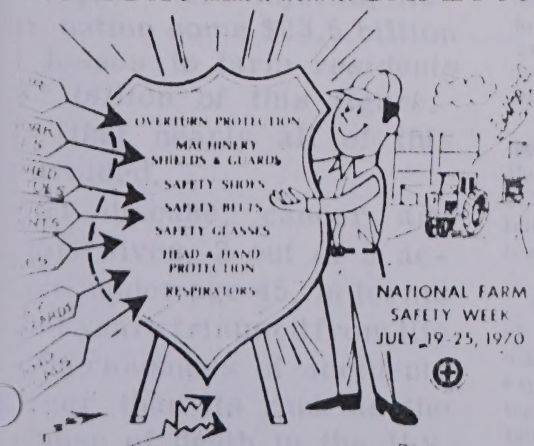

The ban on the succeeding himself was repealed in a special constitutional election held in January, 1960, permitting Governor Warren E. Hearnes to be re-elected in 1960. The first Missouri governor to serve two terms in a row. Phil M. Donnelly served two terms, but not succeeded by Forrest Smith being elected between Donnelly's two terms. Representative Joseph Hill (R-Kansas City) testified at recent hearing before a subcommittee of the Joint Interim Committee on Tax Revenue and Exemptions. Hill has long found for tax exemptions for the elderly who are on a fixed income, and presented his proposal twice in the 75th General Assembly.

Hill said that raising the Missouri tax on beer, wine and liquor to the national average of these taxes in other states would adequately fund a tax relief bill for low, fixed income elderly. Taxes on spirits and other liquors in Missouri are much less than in almost all other states, and Missouri's tax on beer is the lowest in the nation. For instance, Minnesota, a midwest state having approximately the same population as Missouri, collected about $26 million last year from taxes on beer, wine and liquor; Missouri about $12 million.

Representative Walter Meyer, subcommittee Chairman, said that the tax base for school and other local governments should not be reduced and that

Family info. Unionville cemetery records list Charles W. with complete dates. Maybe wife md 3rd after his death as she wasn't listed here.

Comstock Funeral Home Records 1916-1991 pub 1994 pg 282 has listing for one Charles W. Mullenix buried Unionville cemetery died 4 Jun 1923. No other info.

Located an obituary of Charles W. Mullenix and also an article about his death in Chicago, both in the Unionville paper. Charles was shot and killed by his brother in law and business partner after a fight ensued, Mr Berry said to save his life. Don't know if Mr Berry survived as he was in serious condition when taken to the hospital. He sure didn't sound like a person that would do something like that but sometimes you never know what could provoke someone into doing something they wouldn't ordinarily do.

OBITUARY: Unionville Republican 9 May 1923 p4 c3: "Charles W. Mullenix, son of Mr and Mrs James I. Mullenix, was born May 23, 1885 and died at his home in Chicago, Ill., April 29, 1923. --- He was married on January 15th, 1913, to Miss Olga Berry. Both were residents of Unionville at that time. Four children were born to this union, tow of whom died in infancy. The surviving children are Albert Berry and Charles Wood. --- In June 1917, the family moved from Unionville to Chicago, from which time until his death he was engaged in the real estate business at Halstead & 78th streets. He was graduated in law, and was admitted to the bar in June, 1920. He was a member of the Auburn Park Business men's Association, Lyons Club, Auburn Park Club, North Shore Athletic Club, and Chicago Real Estate Board. He was held in very high esteem among his associates both in Putnam county and in Chicago. --- The funeral services were conducted from the Auburn Park Masonic Temple, and the remains were temporarily placed in Oakwood cemetery to await the inquest on the 11th of this month. It is understood here that the body will thereafter be shipped to Putnam county for permanent interment. --- Mr Mullenix was reared to manhood in Putnam county, was educated in the public schools of this county, and taught in the Putnam county schools for a number of years. he was elected treasurer of Putnam county, and served capably in that capacity. He also helped to organize the Citizens Bank, and was its first cashier."

Article about his death was in the Unionville Republican Wed 2 May 1923 p1 c3: "Former Putnam County People In Horrible Chicago Tragedy--- A Battle to the death growing out of a prolonged quarrel over real estate sales commissions ended yesterday afternoon when J. Eustis Berry, 7924 Aberdeen street, shot and killed his brother in law and business partner, Charles W. Mullenix, who lived at the same address. Berry was severely injured by his adversary, who slashed him with a razor. --- Both men were well known in Englewood business circles. Their real estate firm, Berry 7 Mullenix, had offices at 808 West 79th street. --- The cutting and shooting affray took place in Mullenix's apartment, which is on the first floor at the Aberdeen street address. Dr. W.A. Berry, on the second floor of the building. --- When the police arrived they found both men lying on the floor, unconscious. Hovering between their bodies was Mrs Olga Mullenix, wife of the dead man, and sister of the slayer. --- Mullenix died before he could be placed in a patrol wagon. Berry was taken to St. Bernard's hospital. he made a short statement to the police after he regained consciousness. --- "I shot in self defense", he said. From him, the sister and his brother, the police and Dr. Joseph A. Springer were able to piece together a story of the affair. --- "My brother went downstairs to tak to Mullenix after dinner," Dr Berry said. "Before he went he placed a revolver in his pocket, I believe. At least, the gun was there when the fight started. They had been quarreling for some time. Last week they were riding in an automobile when they got into an argument. A fist fight developed in the car, which crashed against the curb. --- Mrs Mullenix said that she was in the back yard at the time of the killing took place. --- "I left them talking in the parlor", she said. "I was outside when I heard their voices rising and a moment later three shots were fired. I ran into the house. My brother was on the floor, cut and bleeding. My husband was dying. Two bullets had entered his head and a third went thru his breast. I fould a bloody razor in the room. The police found the revolver there also." --- At St. Bernard's hospital Berry made a short statement: "We had been talking for some time" he said. "Then Mullenix got mad and we flew into another quarrel. He rummaged around and found a razor, rushing for me. I wasable to ward off his swings with the razor for a time but at last he cut my arm and shoulder. I then drew my gun and shot three times. --- " Had to shoot to save my live. It was his life or mine, and I did what any one would do to protect himself." --- Mullenix was the father of two children. Berry is not married. They had been in business together for several years.--- Berry will be held pending the result of a coroner's inquest that will be held this morning. Physicians at the hospital said that his injuries were serious. --- Chicago Daily Tribune, Monday, April 30, 1923." --- Mr Mullenix and the members of the Berry family are quite well known in this county where both formerly lived and now have many relatives. HUSBAND Charles W. MULLENIX-3599

NOTES:

Family info. Unionville cemetery records list Charles W. with complete dates. Maybe wife md 3rd after his death as she wasn't listed here.

Located an obituary of Charles W. Mullenix and also an article about his death in Chicago, both in the Unionville paper. Charles was shot and killed by his brother in law and business partner after a fight ensued, Mr Berry said to save his life. Don't know if Mr Berry survived as he was in serious condition when taken to the hospital. He sure didn't sound like a person that would do something like that but sometimes you never know what could provoke someone into doing something they wouldn't ordinarily do.

OBITUARY: Unionville Republican 9 May 1923 p4 c3: "Charles W. Mullenix, son of Mr and Mrs James I. Four children were born to this union, two of whom died in infancy. The surviving children are Albert Berry and Charles Wood. --- In June 1917, the family moved from Unionville to Chicago, from which time until his death he was engaged in the real estate business at Halstead & 78th streets. He was graduated in law, and was admitted to the bar in June, 1920. He was a member of the Auburn Park Business men's Association, Lyons Club, Auburn Park Club, North Shore Athletic Club, and Chicago Real Estate Board. He was held in very high esteem among his associates both in Putnam county and in Chicago. --- The funeral services were conducted from the Auburn Park Masonic Temple, and the remains were temporarily placed in Oakwood cemetery to await the inquest on the 11th of this month. Article about his death was in the Unionville Republican Wed 2 May 1923 p1 c3: "Former Putnam County People In Horrible Chicago Tragedy--- A Battle to the death growing out of a prolonged quarrel over real estate sales commissions ended yesterday afternoon when J. Eustis Berry, 7924 Aberdeen street, shot and killed his brother in law and business partner, Charles W. Mullenix, who lived at the same address. Hovering between their bodies was Mrs Olga Mullenix, wife of the dead man, and sister of the slayer. --- Mullenix died before he could be placed in a patrol wagon. Berry was taken to St. Bernard's hospital. he made a short statement to the police after he regained consciousness. --- "I shot in self defense", he said. From him, the sister and his brother, the police and Dr. Joseph A. "Before he went he placed a revolver in his pocket, I believe. At least, the gun was there when the fight started. They had been quarreling for some time. Last week they were riding in an automobile when they got into an argument. A fist fight developed in the car, which crashed against the curb. --- Mrs Mullenix said that she was in the back yard at the time of the killing took place. --- "I left them talking in the parlor", she said. "I was outside when I heard their voices rising and a moment later three shots were fired. I ran into the house. My brother was on the floor, cut and bleeding. My husband was dying. Two bullets had entered his head and a third went thru his breast. I found a bloody razor in the room. The police found the revolver there also." --- At St. Bernard's hospital Berry made a short statement: "We had been talking for some time" he said. "Then Mullenix got mad and we flew into another quarrel. He rummaged around and found a razor, rushing for me. I was able to ward off his swings with the razor for a time but at last he cut my arm and shoulder. I then drew my gun and shot three times. --- "Had to shoot to save my life. It was his life or mine, and I did what any one would do to protect himself." --- Mullenix was the father of two children. Berry is not married. They had been in business together for several years.--- Berry will be held pending the result of a coroner's inquest that will be held this morning. Physicians at the hospital said that his injuries were serious. --- Chicago Daily Tribune, Monday, April 30, 1923." --- Mr Mullenix and the members of the Berry family are quite well known in this county where both formerly lived and now have many relatives. The parents of Mr Mullenix, Mr and Mrs James Mullenix, live at Hartford. Mr Mullenix was the first cashier of the Citizens Bank and was treasurer of Putnam county. Nothing is known at the time this is written about the disposition of the body, although it is the general opinion that it will be interred in Chicago."

She was living with her husband in Chicago, IL in Apr 1923 when her brother shot and killed her husband Charles W. Mullenix. FORMER PUTNAM COUNTY PEOPLE IN HORRIBLE CHICAGO TRAGEDY

A battle to the death growing out of a prolonged quarrel over real estate sales commissions ended yesterday afternoon when J. Eustis Berry, 7924 Aberdeen street, shot and killed his brother-in-law and business partner, Charles W. Mullenix, who lived at the same address. Berry was severely injured by his adversary, who slashed him with a razor.

Both men were well known in Englewood business circles. Their real estate firm, Berry & Mullenix, had offices at 808 West 79th street.

The cutting and shooting affray took place in Mullenix's apartment, which is on the first floor at the Aberdeen street address. Berry lived with his brother, Dr. W. A. Berry, on the second floor of the building.

When the police arrived they found both men lying on the floor, unconscious. Hovering between their bodies was Mrs. Olga Mullenix, wife of the dead man, and sister of the slayer.

Mullenix died before he could be placed in a patrol wagon. Berry was taken to St. Bernard's hospital. He made a short statement to the police after he regained consciousness.

"I shot in self defense," he said.

From him, the sister and his brother, the police and Dr. Joseph A. Springer were able to piece together a story of the affair.

"My brother went downstairs to talk to Mullenix after dinner," Dr. Berry said. "Before he went he placed a revolver in his pocket, I believe. At least, the gun was there when the fight started. They had been quarreling for some time. Last week they were riding in an automobile when they got into an argument. A fist fight developed in the car, which crashed against the curb.

Mrs. Mullenix said that she was in the back yard at the time the killing took place.

"I left them talking in the parlor," she said. "I was outside when I

BOY KILLED BY TRUCK

Ross Jeffers, 11 year old and Mrs. Lee Jeffers, who live 10 miles south and east of Unionville, were instantly killed last morning by a truck which hit their car and crushed the car.

The boy had come with his mother and younger brother to Galloupe home that morning to pick some strawberry plants. They finished gathering the plants and then the boys went with their father, who stays at the home, to the barn where they were being killed and dressed by Mr. Galloupe and Ira Grabosch of Unionville. The boys were loaded upon a truck back yard by Mr. Galloupe, who was to bring it to Unionville.

The three boys climbed into the truck when Mr. Galloupe closed the cab and started the engine. Mr. Galloupe did not know that the boys were on the truck, but planned to stop at the home to get the radiator with water. The truck was short ways from the house, and the truck could not stop and was going very rapidly.

From the testimony of the coroner's inquest it appears that Ross Jeffers was standing on the short run on the left side, probably to get off before the truck had been reached, but changed his mind and apparently his foot slipped. The boys saw him fall. Mr. Galloupe knew nothing of the accident until he had stopped the truck. The boys told him that Ross Jeffers had been run over by the truck and was dead already.

Coroner Quail was notified of the accident and was unable to go to the scene. C. C. Coop to act in his place. Sheriff Robinson and Coroner Quail hurried to the scene of the tragedy quickly. After hearing the evidence of the coroner and the two boys the jury returned a verdict to the effect that the boys had met their death.

BOY KILLED

A battle to the death growing out of a prolonged quarrel over real estate sales commissions ended yesterday afternoon when 12-year-old Harry Berry, 1222 Aberdeen street, shot and killed his brother-in-law and business partner, Charles W. Mullenix, who lived at the same address. Berry was severely injured by his adversary, who slashed him with a razor.

Both men were well-known in Unionville business circles. Their real estate firm, Berry & Mullenix, had offices at 802 West 16th street.

The cutting and shooting affair took place in Mullenix's apartment, which is on the first floor at the Aberdeen street address. Berry lived with his brother, Dr. W. A. Berry, on the second floor of the building.

When the police arrived they found both men lying on the floor upon a sofa. Hovering between their bodies was Mrs. Orla Mullenix, wife of the dead man, and sister of the slain.

Mullenix died before he could be placed in a patrol wagon. Berry was taken to St. Bernard's hospital. He made a short statement to the police after he regained consciousness.

"I shot in self defense," he said. "From him, the sister and his brother, the police and Dr. Joseph A. Springer were able to piece together a story of the affair.

"My brother went downstairs to talk to Mullenix after dinner," Dr. Berry said. "Before he went he picked up a revolver in his pocket. I believe the gun was there when the fight started. They had been quarreling for some time. Last week they were riding in an automobile when they got into an argument. A fight developed in the car, which crashed against the curb.

"Mrs. Mullenix said that she was in the back seat at the time the automobile crashed.

Two bullets had entered his head, and a third went through his breast. I found a bloody razor in the room. The police found the revolver there also."

At St. Bernard's hospital Berry made a short statement:

"We had been talking for some time," he said. "Then Mullenix got mad and we flew into another quarrel. He rummaged around and found a razor, rushing for me. I was able to ward off his swings with the razor for a time, but at last he cut my arm and shoulder. I then drew my gun and shot three times."

"I had to shoot to save my life. It was his life or mine, and I did what any one would do to protect himself."

Mullenix was the father of two children. Berry is not married. They had been in business together for several years.

Berry will be held pending the result of a coroner's inquest that will be held this morning. Physicians at the hospital said that his injuries were serious.—Chicago Daily Tribune, Monday, April 30, 1923.

Mr. Mullenix and the members of the Berry family are quite well known in this county where both formerly lived and now have many relatives. The parents of Mr. Mullenix, Mr. and Mrs. James Mullenix, live at Hartford. Mr. Mullenix was the first cashier of the Citizens Bank and was treasurer of Putnam county. Nothing is known at the time this is written about the disposition of the body, although it is the general opinion that it will be interred in Chicago.

TRENTON REPUBLICAN AND IMPROVES

The Trenton Republican recently was compelled to move its old quarters, so it purchased across the street, and is erecting one story building to house its and machinery. In addition, it has purchased a new Duplex which will enable it to print copies per hour, and this will be installed in the new home. The improvement will enable the paper to make extensive improvements in appearance and size, it is thought.

The Lancaster Excelsior says the business men on the southeast corner of her square made up a fund to build a circular concrete wall for a flower bed on the southeast corner of the court lawn, and that the business men on the northwest corner are planning to build one on that corner. Per flower beds are the purpose of the wall and these will add much to the beauty already there, or, if no beauty is now, they will make beauty none was.

KILLED IN ACTION

CAPT. NORMAN LANE PART OF PRICE OF WAR.

Believed To Have Been Among
 First To Cross Rhine Under General Hodges

Captain Norman Lane, son of Probate Judge and Mrs. N. V.
 Lane, was killed in the fighting in Germany on March 16th, according to a telegram received by Captain Lane's wife, the former Miss Helen Livezey, and telephoned to his parents last week.
 Mrs. Lane and her mother, Mrs.
 Maud Livezey, were in Indianapolis, Indiana, where the former is employed. As soon as they could, after receiving the sad message, they came to Unionville, reaching here Monday night, and are now here.

It is not known exactly, of course, where Captain Lane met death, but it is believed to have occurred just after the crossing of the Rhine at Remagen when the Yanks cut the super highway a few miles beyond. It was there that the Germans made a counter attack in an effort to save the highway, and bitter fighting took place to smash the Germans back.
 He is believed to have been in this. He was serving in an anti-tank outfit, and had frequently been mixed up in the hardest sort of fighting.

In fact, most of his service since going overseas has been in one battle after another. His work was so outstanding that he won the Bronze Star, and was made a Captain in the field. His promotions all were made the hard way. For some time he had been serving in the Ninth Division of General Hodge's First
 Army and this group has won here the fall of 1940. When the National Guard units were called into active service, he resigned at Lancaster and left with the unit for Camp Robinson as a Corporal. In training he won promotion to Sergeant, and then was selected to attend Officers' Training School from which he graduated as a Second Lieutenant in July, 1942, and was sent to Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

He landed with the first Yank units in French Morocco, and fought through the Tunisian and Sicilian campaigns before going to England to spend four months in training for the landing in Normandy on June 6, 1944. Since that landing he was in a steady string of fighting all the way through France, into Germany and across the Rhine. Apparently, he was among the first to cross the Rhine.

It is grimly ironic that he had won the right to a furlough home, while another officer in the same group had also won the right. Both, however, could not be spared, and they flipped a coin, it is understood, to see which would come home. Norman lost, and with it his life, it would seem. This happened only a short time before he was killed. Undoubtedly under heavy fire most of the time for months through the most critical of the fighting, it also seems ironic that he lost his life just as the breaks seemed to be brighter just ahead.

Norman had many friends here, who remember him as a good student, a good all around athlete, and baseball player. The deepest sympathy of hundreds of friends go to the bereaved parents and wife. He was an only child, and this makes it seem harder, but such is the price of war, and relatives can only take a measure of satisfaction in the

After all the above problems have been solved, and more, and a proposition has finally been worked out which meets all the conditions on a basic reasonable fair to all, will the approval of the people of the county be ready? Will too many complain that the proposed system does not pass in front of their homes and therefore must be opposed? Will a majority of the people understand that this is a foundation system, and that it cannot all be built at once, but must begin somewhere while other sections must wait until they are reached, and be willing to accept that? Or will they insist that the first road must be built in their neighborhood, or else? Will a majority be willing to tax themselves to make a genuine start toward a county wide system to be had within a very few years, or will too many object on one ground or another to make it hopeless for everyone including themselves?

These are a few of the thorny questions which must be met and solved, if the county makes progress as desired in this respect. The task of simply working out a definite program which meets all the legal requirements is a big one in itself, and this is why plans evolve slowly, and haste must be made slowly.

"SONG OF NEVADA"

Musical Western Combines Action, Comedy and Romance

Newest of the deluxe musical Westerns starring Roy Rogers, is Republic's high-budget "Song of Nevada," featuring Dale Evans and Mary Lee, which comes to the Royal Theatre on Saturday night only, April 7.

Against the background of the modern West, the picture combines action, new songs, unusual chorus routines, comedy and romance to make wholesome escapist fare.

I thought that the lost one performed his duty
without flinching
in the face of danger.

Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates and places of Frederick, 2 spouses and a picture of he and his first wife when they were elderly. Possibly pic of wife was the 2nd one but is with info from Frederick and wife Sarah so not sure which wife it is. Frederick died 1900 and he looks elderly in the pic. (copy) Sarah d. 1864 and Margaret died 1910 (so would suspect was 2nd wife the picture was of?)

e-mail from Bruce Davey May 2006 listed a son James b. 1850. If they had a son, he had died by 1860 as no son listed in census but could have as a gap between children b. 1847 & 1852.

MARRIAGE2: Recorded Putnam Co. MO Book 1 pg 333. also have copy.

DEATH: Cemetery stone and obituary list date and place. Obit from Kirksville Democrat 9 Feb 1900 of which I have a copy. Have taken pictures of cemetery stones in the Miller Family Cemetery located on old Miller farm in Sec 21 Twp. 64 Rg 16 in Adair Co. MO. Also Adair Co. Mo Cemeteries pub. 1981 has listing of Miller Family Cem. I was at the farm once owned by Frederick W. Miller and took pictures of all the stones there (several missing) and talked to the owners living there now and they said the cemetery had been kept up by a relative but hadn't been there lately. This was Jun 1984. The cemetery set upon a hill north of the new house in a wooded area. This was located near the Adair and Putnam Co. line just north of Blackbird Creek on a gravel road that runs east and west.

Adair and Schuyler Co. Court house's were checked for a will or probate record or inventory of farm but nothing was located.

An article from the Putnam Co. History on Mullanix Settlement stated that Frederick settled there with Jesse Mullanix first, before going to Adair Co.

OBITUARY OF FREDERICK MILLER: Kirksville Democrat 9 Feb 1900. Researched at Columbia, MO May 1986 and located obit.

"Shibley's Point: "Uncle" Fredrick Miller as he was familiarly called, is dead. Frederick Miller was born in Kentucky April 7, 1817, came to Randolph Co. this state when 17 and remained there 14 years, he then came to Nineveh Twp. this county and took a claim where he lived until about one year ago when he moved to Queen City, where he lived until his death January 28, 1900. He was 82 years 9 months and 10 days old.

He was married twice. To the first wife 3 sons and 4 daughters were born, of which only 2 sons are living. To the second wife (still living) one son and 3 daughters were born, all of whom are living. Mr Miller was a Democrat all his life and went to the polls at the last election. He was in fair circumstances and gave much alms to the poor. His memory will be cherished."

CENSUS RECORDS:

1820 He would have been age 3 yrs. His father Jesse Miller was in Wayne Co. Ky census with 3 males to age 10.

1830 Age 13. His father Jesse Miller was in Wayne Co. KY census with 1 male age 10/15.

HUSBAND - Frederick Wilson Miller *

All the info on the children are in the Miller Books

BIRTH: Cemetery stone and obituary list date and place. One Frederick Miller was listed as receiving money from estate of Jesse Miller 1844 Randolph Co. MO (that info from Lindell Miller May 2006).

Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates and places of Frederick, 2 spouses and a picture of he and his first wife when they were elderly. Possibly pic of wife was the 2nd one but is with info from Frederick and wife Sarah so not sure which wife it is. Frederick died 1900 and he looks elderly in the pic. (copy) Sarah d. 1864 and Margaret died 1910 (so would suspect was 2nd wife the picture was of?)

MARRIAGE1: Recorded Randolph Co. MO and have copy.

e-mail from Bruce Davey May 2006 listed a son James b. 1850. If they had a son, he had died by 1860 as no son listed in census but could have as a gap between children b. 1847 & 1852.

MARRIAGE2: Recorded Putnam Co. MO Book 1 pg 333. also have copy.

DEATH: Cemetery stone and obituary list date and place. Obit from Kirksville Democrat 9 Feb 1900 of which I have a copy. Have taken pictures of cemetery stones in the Miller Family Cemetery located on old Miller farm in Sec 21 Twp. 64 Rg 16 in Adair Co. MO. Also Adair Co. Mo Cemeteries pub. 1981 has listing of Miller Family Cem. I was at the farm once owned by Frederick W. Miller and took pictures of all the stones there (several missing) and talked to the owners living there now and they said the cemetery had been kept up by a relative but hadn't been there lately. This was Jun 1984. The cemetery set upon a hill north of the new house in a wooded area. This was located near the Adair and Putnam Co. line just north of Blackbird Creek on a gravel road that runs east and west.

DAR membership papers of Dorothea Louise Richardson Montgomery Arnold who went in to DAR on Frederick Miller has listed info on Frederick, Jesse, Frederick Wilson Miller. Frederick Wilson Miller b. 7 Apr 1817 Wayne Co. KY died 29 Jan 1900 Adair Co. MO md 15 May 1834 Randolph Co. MO md Sarah Mullinax.

WIFE - Margaret Collins

Complete info on Margaret Collins Miller in the Miller Books.

BIRTH: Cemetery stone list birth as 30 Apr 1837. Death cert. list birth date as 1827 TN. She was listed in the 1850 census of Bradley Co. TN with John and Rebecca Collins, other siblings but no space between them but was said she had a half brother Betz who was born 1845 so not sure who her mother was.

PARENTS: Death cert. list father as John Collins b. VA. If Bates (Bales?) her half brother was born ca 1846 apparently her mother died between 1837 & 1845. Did locate father in 1850 census in Bradley Co. TN.

E-mail from Bruce Davey May 2006 listed parents of Margaret Collins Morgan as John Collins and Rutha Beck. So Rebecca could be a 2nd wife and not mother of Margaret?

MARRIAGE1: Believe she md Daniel Morgan before Frederick which was recorded Putnam Co. MO 19 Aug 1858. No info on children to date or what happend to Daniel. Bruce Davey reported that Margaret was 13 and her family moved to TN then at 15 they moved to MO. Morgan was a confederate soldier and was leaving Margaret and their two small boys when he was captured by the Union Army. Margaret watched them drag him away, never to see him again. Believed he died while a prisoner of war at Afton, IL. Margaret found a cooking job for the Union soldiers but the rugged life following the camps was too much for the two boys and they were buried by the side of the road and no one remembers their names. Sure sounds like Margaret had a very hard life from 1st mg anyway.

MARRIAGE2: Recorded Putnam Co. MO Book 1 pg 333. also have copy. Have 6 children listed for this marriage and census said had 7 with 4 living.

Find A Grave internet site listed birth and death dates for Margaret, note said Mothers name- Ruth Back (no memorial yet). Parents John Thomas Collins 1797-1880 and spouse Frederick Wilson Miller 1817-1900. 4 children listed of 6 they had and 10 siblings. Note: Second wife of Frederick W. Miller, She was 1st md to Daniel Morgan. Burial Connelssville, Adair Co. MO, Miller Cem. (copy)

The 4 children listed were James Monroe Miller, Eva Adetia McCartney, Cassadana Dana and Anna Parallea. Don't know of any Morgan children.

DEATH: Cemetery stone and obituary list date and place. Obit from Queen City Leader 28 Oct 1910 of which I have a copy. Have taken pictures of cemetery stones in the Miller Family Cemetery located on old Miller farm in Sec 21 Twp.64 Rg 16 in Adair Co. MO. Also Adair Co. Mo Cemeteries pub. 1981 has listing of Miller Family Cem. I was at the farm once owned by Frederick W. Miller and took pictures of all the stones there (several missing) and talked to the owners living there now and they said the cemetery had been kept up by a relative but hadn't been there lately. This was Jun 1984. The cemetery set upon a hill north of the new house in a wooded area. This was located near the Adair and Putnam Co. line just north of Blackbird Creek on a gravel road that runs east and west.

DEATH CERT: #32845 Undertaker, W.C. Biggs, Queen City, MO. Informant, Hiram Davis Queen City, MO. Cause, can't make out for sure: Milral Itenoiss? and oedens? of lungs. (Dr? W.B. Hight? Queen City, MO). Father listed as John and mother not known. Birth year 1827, month & day not known and age 73, widow. Some of this info doesn't agree with census records that she may have stated.

Adair and Schuyler Co. Court house's were checked for a will or probate record or inventory but nothing was located.

OBITUARY OF MARGARET MILLER:

"Mrs Margaret Miller died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs H.C. Davis, in this city, Thursday night of last week, aged 78 years. She had been ailing for some time, but her condition did not become serious until a few hours before death came. Mrs Miller was a half sister to B.S. Collins of this city and step mother to E.W. Miller, of near town. She had been a resident of this city 12 or 13 years and had made many friends who were shocked at her sudden demise. Short services at the residence were conducted by P.M. Lind and her remains were taken to the old family burying ground in Adair county and laid away. We extend sympathy to the bereaved relatives."

Husband	Daniel Morgan
Wife	Margaret Collins
Notes HUSBAND - Daniel Morgan Marriage recorded Putnam Co. MO 1858. Duane Davey in e-mail May 2006 listed info on Daniel Morgan. It was believed he was in Civil War as confederate soldier and was leaving Margaret and their two small boys and he was captured by the Union Army and believed he died while a prisoner of war at Afton, IL. Margaret was said to have found a cooking job for the Union soldiers but the rugged life following the camps was too much for the two boys and they were buried by the side of the road and no one remembers their names.
WIFE - Margaret Collins Complete info on Margaret Collins Miller in the Miller Books. BIRTH: Cemetery stone list birth as 30 Apr 1837. Death cert. list birth date as 1827 TN. PARENTS: Death cert. list father as John Collins b. VA. If Bates (Bales?) her half brother was born ca 1846 apparently her mother died between 1837 & 1845. Did locate father in 1850 census in Bradley Co. TN. E-mail from Bruce Davey May 2006 listed parents of Margaret Collins Morgan as John Collins and Rutha Beck. HUSBAND - William Allen Ewing

Not located info from Putnam Co. MO cemetery books on location & dates of his death.

MARRIAGE: Referenced from Marriage Records CD Rom #103. If md to Nicinda 1876 he had children born before that, had he been married before? Oldest child b. 1868.

DEATH: Rose Cemetery records listed his wife as Nicinda Partin instead of Nicinda Ewing. No mention of William Ewing. But did locate him in Find A Grave site but not Nicinda his wife.

Find A Grave internet site William's birth and death date and places, son of John Jordon Ewing 1811-1888 and Elizabeth Viers. William moved to MO when he was a young man. He married 1st to 1st wife Sarah Reynolds in 1867 in MO. Father of John Addison, James F., John L. William Jr. He married 2nd to Nicinda Martin 11 Oct 1876 Schuyler Co. MO and was the father of James Harvey, Nettie F., Lena Etta May, Enmona Elizabeth, David Anderson. (neither of these list the same children as the census and ages do. Sarah died after they had 4 children 1875 and he md 2nd and they had 4 more children. He reportedly served with his 4 brothers in the Civil War but his records have not been found. He listed 1 son John Ewing 1860-1938 and the John he has listed in census he wasn't even married by 1860 that we have record of and 2 siblings. (copy)

HUSBAND - William Allen Ewing

Not located info from Putnam Co. MO cemetery books on location & dates of his death.

MARRIAGE: Referenced from Marriage Records CD Rom #103. If md to Nicinda 1876 he had children born before that, had he been married before? Oldest child b. 1868.

DEATH: Rose Cemetery records listed his wife as Nicinda Partin instead of Nicinda Ewing. No mention of William Ewing. But did locate him in Find A Grave site but not Nicinda his wife.

Find A Grave internet site William's birth and death date and places, son of John Jordon Ewing 1811-1888 and Elizabeth Viers. William moved to MO when he was a young man. He married 1st to 1st wife Sarah Reynolds in 1867 in MO. Father of John Addison, James F., John L. William Jr. He married 2nd to Nicinda Martin 11 Oct 1876 Schuyer Co. MO and was the father of James Harvey, Nettie F., Lena Etta May, Enmona Elizabeth, David Anderson. (neither of these list the same children as the census and ages do. Sarah died after they had 4 children 1875 and he md 2nd and they had 4 more children. He reportedly served with his 4 brothers in the Civil War but his records have not been found. He listed 1 son John Ewing 1860-1938 and the John he has listed in census he wasn't even married by 1860 that we have record of and 2 siblings. (copy)

WIFE - Nicinda Partin

MARRIAGE: Referenced from Marriage Records CD Rom #103. Believe had 4 children from this marriage.

DEATH: Pleasant Home Cemetery records listed her as Ninanday Partin instead of Nicinda Ewing. No mention of William Ewing. Birth age correct. Rechecked Find A Grave for Pleasant Home cem to find her at any name but didn't locate her there. Husband William A Ewing was there. Looked Unionville paper for obit and didnt locate one 1-15 Jul.

Census listed 4 children for Nicinda: Anoma Elizabeth, David Anderson, William A., Virginia I.

William Allen Ewing Find A grave site listed his children with Nicinda as: James Harvey, Nettie F., Lena Etta May, Ennoma Elizabeth David Anderson. Supposedly had 4 children. Wife #1 Sarah: had John Addison, James F. John L. William Jr. supposedly had 4 children but some of these names listed with Nicinda as mother in census records. Sarah died 1875 and he md 1876 Nicinda.

Didn't locate Nicinda in Find A Grave and should have been as she died in 1931.

1870 Putnam Co. MO there was one N. Partin age 15f with mother. Believe to be Nicinda.

Was probably married by 1881 as appears 1st child born 1883 by census record. Although Mg Records CD Rom #103 had mg date of 28 Jun 1885 Putnam Co. MO. Will have to question that.

1870 Putnam Co. MO one R or P male age 12 that is probably Preston.

1900 Putnam Co. Mo Preston E. Partin b. Dec 1857, Sarah Feb 1868, Robert E. Sep 1883, Perry June 1889, Cora B. Sep 1890, James Jun 1892, Glen Jun 1893, Arlie Aug 1895, David Jul 1899.

1910 Miracode Putnam Co. MO p121: Press E. Partin 52 MO, Sarah E. 42 wife, Pery 22 son, James 17 son, Glen 15 son, Arley 13 son, David 11 son, William 9 son, Emma 7 dau, Orvil 5 son Anna 2/12 dau.

1920 Putnam Co. MO p8 144/145: Preston E. Partin 62 Mo, Sarah 52 Mo, Perry 32 son, Wm 18 son, Emma 17 dau, Orval 14 son, Anna 10 dau, Ray L. 4/12 Mo grandson.

Internet site of David Abernathy from worldconnect Jun 2007 listed Preston and Sarah as having 14 children: Robert, Stephen A., Perry Evans, Cora Bell, James, Roy Glen, child, Arlie, David Martin, John William, Emma Millie, Jessie Orval, Anna Marie and one living Partin. Few of birth dates differ from other info I had, which could be right or wrong. Have some of the cem records which will use as dates if have them.

WIFE - Sarah Isabella Abernathy

Robert F. Hart

Robert Frederick Hart was born November 25, 1917, the son of Rollin F. and Iva Clinkenbeard Hart, in the Chariton neighborhood of northeast Putnam County, Missouri. On May 1, 1944, he was united in marriage to Ruby King at Des Moines, Iowa. They made their home in Putnam County for awhile, and later in Des Moines. After Ruby's death in July, 1972, Fred made his home at Liberty Center, Iowa. He had been an employee of John Deere Co. at Ankeny, Iowa, for 18 years, until ill health forced his retirement. He passed away at his home in Liberty Center on December 2, 1976, at the age of 59 years, 1 week, and 3 days.

Surviving his passing are: one daughter, Judy Sawyer and husband, Larry, Marshalltown, Iowa; one son, Ronnie Hart, Des Moines, Iowa; granddaughter, Cindy Sawyer, and twin grandsons, Jeremy and Jason Sawyer, of Marshalltown. Fred greatly enjoyed his children and grandchildren and had a genuine love for them. He is survived by four sisters: Georgia Childers, Virginia Hoyt, and Betty Fowler, all of Unionville, Missouri; and Bonnie Glascock, Centerville, Iowa; and two brothers: Francis Hart, Unionville, and Merrill Hart, Liberty Center, Iowa; a sister-in-law, Olive Hart, Unionville; and 19 nephews and nieces.

Preceding him in death, in addition to his wife, were his parents and brothers, Rollie James Hart, October 27, 1936; Paul Blane Hart, September 7, 1962; and David Franklin Hart, May 2, 1972; and one infant son, Gary Marvin Hart.

Fred enjoyed hunting and fishing ever since boyhood, and loved the out-of-doors, and the animals of God's creation.

He was kind and thoughtful of others, and will be fondly remembered and sincerely mourned by all who have known him.

Services were conducted at Husted Funeral Home at 1:00 p.m. on Monday, December 6, 1976. Rev. Glen Lochhead was officiating minister. Burial in Mt. Hermon Cemetery.

engaged principally in the tobacco and dry goods business. A man of unflinching integrity, he was yet ambitious to the highest degree, and his youthful dreams have become a rapacious reality. In these days gold is omnipotent, and with this magician's wand Mr. G. finds every door, so hopelessly closed against so many eager ones, fly noiselessly back on its hinges. Life pours at his feet her choicest offerings, and time floats to strains of sweetest music through the scented air. When it is remembered how much of courage, industry, perseverance and solid capacity Mr. Gipson's success represents, it cannot be said that his reward is greater than his deserts. "The way of the transgressor is hard," then his pathway must blossom thickly with the pure flowers of virtue and truth. Mr. Gipson was married in 1837 to Miss Lucinda Somers, daughter of Abraham Somers, of Randolph county, originally from Kentucky. By this marriage there were seven children, viz.: Jane, wife of Philip Teters, of Macon county; Daniel, who married Miss Catherine Teters; Columbus, married Miss Gates; Annie, wife of John Vada, of Macon county; Jasper, who married Miss Jane Yorkum; Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Manning, and Joseph, still at home. Losing his first wife, Mr. Gipson married Mrs. Virginia Manning, daughter of Mr. Province McCormick, formerly of Virginia. The second marriage was crowned by three children: Lucinda, Fannie and Richard. Mr. Gipson's family were educated at McGee College. He is a member of the A. F. and A. M. Blue Lodge at College Mound, and is an exemplary follower of the faith of the Christian Church, to which his first wife also belonged. The present Mrs. Gipson is a Presbyterian.

LEWIS GREEN

(Post-office, College Mound).

This venerable gentleman comes of mixed Virginia and Tennessee parentage, and was himself born in Wayne county, Ky., in April, 1806. He grew up on a farm, and received a common-school education. At the age of 19 he left his boyhood's home and sought in Randolph county, Mo., a new field for the gratification of his hopes and ambitions. In a few years he removed to Macon, where he still lives. He has always been engaged in agricultural pursuits, and now owns 110 acres of land, 100 under good fence. He raises grass, corn and tobacco. Mr. Green owes his possessions to his own untidied efforts, and now enjoys in peaceful tranquillity the fruits of his toil. He has been presented by the old settlers of Macon county, as a token of respect to the oldest housekeeper in the county, with a cane, cup and saucer and silver. Mr. Green was married in 1828, to Miss Nancy Gross, daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth Gross, of Randolph county, Mo. They have had nine children, six of whom are living: Isaac, who married Miss Polly Somers, daughter of Ninereh Somers, of Macon county, is a well-to-do farmer; Sarah Elizabeth, wife of Jesse Johnson; Reynolds, married to E. Morrow, daughter of Jesse Morrow of Macon; Christine, wife of Grub Banning; Wilson R., who married Miss Elizabeth, daughter of James Kitchen, of Macon, and John, married to Miss Louisa Foster. Those deceased are: George W., Celia, wife of Mr. Somers; Nancy, wife of Albert J. Graffle. Mr. Green is a member of the Christian Church, as his wife has been for 45 years. In politics he was a Whig, and is now a Democrat.

ROBERT CRAIG MITCHELL

(Farmer).

Mr. Mitchell, an influential farmer of Chariton township, is of Scotch-Irish descent, and was born, as his parents before him, in Washington county, W. Va. He had the honor of having the natal day, 22d of February, of the great father of his country, George Washington. In the year 1811 began the career of Mr. Mitchell. He grew up in Virginia where he attended the common schools and in time became a farmer. In 1839 he moved to Randolph county, Mo., and settled on Dark creek, five miles north-west of Huntsville, but in a few years again moved, this time to St. Louis, where he embarked in the steam-mill and lumber business. This he continued for 16 years, then went to Mexico, Mo., where he lived until 1869. Since that time he has been farming near College Mound, Macon county. He owns 52 acres of land, well improved and in a good state of cultivation. In 1838 Mr. Mitchell chose for the precious partner of his bosom, Miss Elizabeth Wright, who moved from Kentucky to Missouri with her father, Walter Wright, when she was three years of age. There were 10 children born of this marriage, of whom seven are living: James Waller, who married Miss Emily Turner and lives in Mexico; Susan Ann, wife of Ben Eli Guthrie, a prominent lawyer of Macon City; Marie Louise, wife of Lloyd McIntosh, a farmer in Audrain county; Robert Craig, a physician of Sue City, Macon county, who was educated at College Mound and graduated at the Missouri Medical College in St. Louis; Leonidas Mathias, in a store in Macon and married to Miss Lavinia Harris; Sarah Harriet, wife of L. H. Moss, attorney-at-law at St. Joseph; and Edmund Thomas at home. All of Mr. Mitchell's children were educated at McGee College. Mr. Mitchell was formerly in politics a Whig, and is now a Democrat. Honest in his convictions and unwavering in his adherence to what he knows to be right, Mr. Mitchell's utterances are esteemed of the profoundest value by his neighbors, and a word from him goes a long way toward forming their opinions. He belongs to the A. F. and A. M., including the Chapter. He is also a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

WILLIAM POWELL, SR.

(Farmer, Section 10).

Mr. Powell, Sr., an old settler and a farmer widely connected throughout the county, is a native of North Carolina. His father was a Virginian by birth, but emigrated to North Carolina, married a na-is so well recognized and his character such that the success of this bank was assured from the time he first became identified with it. His career has fully justified the expectations of those interested in it, and of the community at large. It ranks among the substantial, solid, banking houses of this section of the State, being intelligently and soberly managed and conducted on sound business principle. Personally, Mr. Baird is popular with all who know him. He is affable, courteous and accommodating, and perfectly reliable in business as in everything else. On the 1st of September, 1880, he was married to Miss Bessie Hunt, a daughter of N. Hunt, a prominent citizen of this city.

ALFRED BANTA

(Of Banta & Son, Livery and Sale Stables, Macon City).

Alfred Banta, pere, was born in Henry county, Ky., July 29, 1829. His parents, John and Nancy (List) Banta, came to Missouri in 1834 and located in what is now Beaver township, three miles south of the town of Beaver, where the father entered quite a tract of land, and engaged in farming, which he followed until his death, some years before the war. Alfred was next to the youngest in the family of seven children, and was reared partly in this county. At the age of 20 he was married to Miss Martha A. Terrell, a daughter of John Terrell, an early settler of the county. He thereupon located on a tract of land near his father, where he continued farming up to the fall of 1882, meeting with good success. He grew tobacco quite extensively and also raised and brought stock, shipping them to the wholesale markets. For four years he ran the Banta mill. He still owns his farm in Chariton township which contains some 200 acres, and which he superintends. In November, 1882, he came to Macon City and in company with his son, Alfred, Jr., established their present business. They have the leading livery and sales stables of the place and are doing an excellent business. They carry a fine stock of buggies and horses, and their rigs are justly popular for their appearance and serviceability. Alfred Banta, Sr., and wife have had a family of five children, John, Martha J., who died whilst the wife of Thomas L. Morrow; James A., Emma, now the wife of Robert Grant, and Alfred. Luther died in infancy. Alfred Banta, Jr., was born July 2, 1860, and was educated at the Kirtzville Normal School. He engaged in farming with his father in 1878, and February 3, 1881, was married to Mattie E. Ruby, a daughter of Dr. William Ruby. They have one child, Everett C. Mrs. Banta is a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Young Mr. Banta is an industrious and energetic man and has all the qualities for a successful business career.

BRIGHT C. BARROW (DECEASED)

(Late an attorney-at-law, Macon City).

Mr. Banta was an ornament to the bar, which has sustained an irreparable loss in his death. He was the son of Daniel Barrow and

Jane Gilstrap, natives of Kentucky, and was one of nine children; George, Jane, Louise, Melissa, Welta, James Robert, Marietta and Bright G. Daniel D. came to Macon in 1834, and farmed until his death, in 1865. His wife survived him but a few years; in 1870 the faithful pilgrim reached her journey's end. Bright G. Barrow was born in Lexington, Ky., October 10, 1826; was raised on a farm, where he worked and attended school until he was 18, when he began teaching, and, at the same time, reading law. At the age of 21 he was admitted to the bar, and soon after married Miss Margaret Ferguson, a native of the county, from whom he was lawfully divorced in 1860. To them were born eight children, all except two of whom died in infancy; John C. and Daniel B. are still living. In 1863 Mr. Barrow married a second time; the present Mrs. B. was Miss Jennie Downing, daughter of Joel and Jerusha (Knapp) Downing, originally of Ohio, who came to Macon county in 1861 with his five children: Hannah, Riley, Henrietta, Calista and Jennie. Mr. Downing was born in 1810, and was a farmer. He is still living in sound health, with his daughter. His wife died in 1892 in Van Buren county, Iowa. By his second marriage Mr. Barrow had seven children, of whom three are living: Everett J., Frankie G., and Sneella T. Mr. B. was one of the brightest of the legal luminaries of the county and sat on the bench as probate and county judge. He had a large and lucrative practice and thus upon his death, November 6, 1880, was enabled to leave those he loved above the grinding cares which so often fall to the lot of the widow and orphan. They have a handsome home in the suburbs of Macon City. Mr. B. was a prominent Mason and an earnest member and zealous worker in the Christian Church. For those who die in Christ, the Bible declares we shall not mourn, but joyfully sing—

Where is thy victory, O grave?
And where, O death, thy sting?

JACOB BELL

(Farmer).

Jacob Bell was one of the earliest settlers of Macon county. He was born in Virginia, March 22, 1809, and is the son of Daniel and Catherine (Wiseman) Bell, both natives of Maryland. They had 12 children, only three of whom survive. Daniel came to the county in 1840 and worked at the hatter's trade until his death in 1845. His wife lived until 1865. Jacob was educated in his native State and was a farmer there until after his marriage in 1839. The next year he accompanied his father to Missouri, and entered his present farm. His first wife, who was Miss Virginia McWilliams, of Virginia, died November 20, 1865, leaving no children, and Mr. Bell married September 18, 1866, Miss Virginia Shepherd, who was born in Ohio in 1843. By this marriage there were four children: Robert L., Mary V., Jacob W. and Ellie Maud. Mr. Bell has a fine prairie farm of 240 acres situated one mile north of Macon City, and is a man of live of Caswell county and there raised a family. He subsequently moved to Chariton county, Mo., and died at College Mound. Mr. Powell was born in Caswell county, January 27, 1814, and received his education at the common schools of the county. When he arrived at man's estate he farmed for some years in his native State, and then moved to Missouri, lived for two years in Chariton county, came to Macon and settled about half a mile from McGee College, and in 1857 moved to his present farm three miles north of College Mound. He has always been a farmer.

"Remote from towns he runs his race,
Nor e'er has changed, nor wished to change his place."

Mr. Powell has 160 acres of land upon which he raises tobacco, cattle, grass and timothy. He is successful in his chosen career, and no man can do more. He was three years justice of the peace. Mr. Powell is a married man, having wedded on the 31st of December, 1843, Miss Nancy Banning, daughter of Thomas W. Banning, of Macon, Mo. There were 10 children born, six still living: Peter Folk, who married Miss Mary Stone, of Macon, daughter of Joseph and Malinda Stone; Thomas W.; William Basley, married to Miss Rebecca Kneedler, daughter of Seymour and Sarah Kneedler; Lou, a portrait painter, educated at McGee College and at Kirksville; James Henry, a farmer, married to Miss Isabella Penton, daughter of John and Sarah Jane Penton, of Chariton township, and with one daughter, Leola; and John Franklin, a bright youth of 20, still at home. Mr. and Mrs. Powell belong to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

DR. RUEFUS YANCY POWELL

(Physician and Surgeon).

Dr. Powell, a physician of large practice in Chariton township, was born in Macon, Noxubee county, Miss., April 17, 1839. His father, John Powell, was born January 12, 1812, near Yanceyville, Caswell county, N. C. He was a farmer and died on his farm near College Mound, October 5, 1865. His mother was born in Nash county, N. C. She was born March 15, 1815, and is still living. Many years of her life were spent in her Southern home in Mississippi. When the family came to Missouri, in 1843, the boat upon which they were passengers was the ill-fated steamer "Emblem," which struck a snag and sunk near Herman, on the Missouri, and they lost all their property and narrowly escaped with their lives. They reached Glasgow by another boat, the "West-Wind," and made the rest of the journey on returning wagons in which the farmers of Macon county had hauled tobacco to that point. They settled near College Mound, and R. Y. was educated in McGee College. He graduated with the degree of Ph. B. in 1861, and next went out with a class-mate, Capt. Ben Eli Guthrie, under Gen. Sterling Price, in the Confederate army. He was in the battles of Dry Wood, Lexington, etc. After his return from the war he entered the medical department of the Iowa State University at Keokuk, and graduated in 1864 with the degree of M.D. He practiced 12 months in Kansas at Iowa Point, and then returned to College Mound. The Doctor owns 240 acres of land, 160 acres under fence and principally in grass. He raises thoroughbred sheep, cattle and hogs, fine geese and fowls. He has a fine young orchard, and his land is rendered more valuable by the veins of coal underlying and running through it. Dr. Powell's father raised tobacco and one year raised with four hands and hauled 19,740 pounds and sold it at $5.00 a hundred, at Brunswick, a distance of 45 miles. Dr. Powell was married June 4, 1867, to Miss Mary G. Dawkins, of Darksville, Randolph county. In that county Mrs. Powell was born March 13, 1841, and was educated at McGee College. She has borne 10 children, four of whom are living: George W., Rufus Ernest, Charles A. and Mary Roxana. The Doctor belongs to the A. F. and A. M., and in 1867 was representative to the Grand Lodge of Missouri. He was postmaster and conducted the money order at College Mound for several years in a business-like manner. He has served as notary public for many years, being commissioned by the Governor of the State of Missouri. He is a man of universal popularity and carries the warm affection of half the county in the grasp of his hand.

JEHU TETER

(Farmer, Section 26).

Mr. Teter, a prosperous farmer of Chariton township, was born in Randolph county, now Barbour county, Va., on the 20th day of August, 1827. His parents were natives of the same State. He left Virginia at the age of 10, and coming to Missouri settled in Macon county, on the farm adjoining which he now lives. All of his early life was spent on a farm, and upon reaching manhood he taught school for some time in the county. He then learned the blacksmith's trade, though he has continued to farm. He now owns 280 acres of land all fenced, and all in grass with the exception of 75 acres. His farm is richly veined in every direction with coal. Mr. Teter is in politics a Democrat. He served in the enrolled State militia. He is possessed of the esteem and confidence of the township, as proof of which he filled for many years the trustworthy office of postmaster. Mr. Teter belongs to the A. F. and A. M., and was a delegate to the grand lodge. He has been twice married. His first wife, to whom he was united in 1851, was Miss Julietta Jackson Kitchen, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth Kitchen, natives of North Carolina. There were six children born to this union, of whom but two survive: George Lee, attending school at Pauline Holiness College, and Minna Berilla at home. Being a lonely widower, on the 16th of September, 1877, Mr. Teter married Miss Frances Lewis, daughter of James Lewis, of Chariton county. This has proved a happy union, and he has two children by this mar-
